

Introductory Dance Therapy Workshops, including Dance Movement Therapy workshops and Primitive Expression workshops.

1) Institution

Greek Association of Dance Therapy

2) Dates

Introductory workshops run during the academic year previous to the initiation of a new Three-year Training Program. Completion of two introductory workshops, one in Dance Movement Therapy and one in Primitive Expression are required for entry in the Three-year Training Program

3) Place

Athens, Greece

4) Length (days, hours)

Each introductory course has a total duration of 12 hours, split during a weekend.

5) Facilitators

GADT Registered Senior dance therapists

6) Short description

Each 12 hour introductory course covers in brief basic principles and history of Dance Movement Therapy or Primitive Expression and offers experiential knowledge on the methodology of DMT or PE, accordingly. Content of the workshops varies depending on the facilitator. Introductory workshops are taught in greek.

7) Contact details

dancetherapy@gadt.gr

+30 2106743149

